LEXINGTON CHOICES BEATEN

BACKERS OF FAVORITES FARING POORLY AT KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION COURSE.

Prince Eugene, Odds-On Choice for Feature Race of Day Is Victim of Two Bumping Matches and Finishes Unplaced.

Lexington, Ky., September 15.—Backers of favorites fared poorly at the Kentucky Association course this afternoon. The only winning first choices were J. H. Barr, in the opening dash, and Mack B. Eubanks in the fifth. Both won as if they were much the best in their respective races. The defeat of Prince Eugene from the stable of Jeff Livingston in the third race was probably due to hard luck. At the start he and U. Steppa came together as they were leaving the barrier and both were retarded. Again on the turn out of the backstretch U Steppa and Prince Eugene bumped into one another, and from there on whatever chance the favorite might have had was gone. He is a horse that will not stand bumpling and it is well understood that he runs his best races with a small field. Marle C., the second choice, was off well, had snooth salling and won easily. Flying Tom came with a rush through the stretch and wore down Crisco for second place. Bronzewing was the choice for the handicap, but the big end of the purse went to Edith W., the second choice, after a drive with Leo Skolny. Anytime was a trailing faird.

Jockey Andress gave Candy Box, the second choice, a vigorous and well-judged ride, and won the second race quite easily from the long chance, Ada, she outlasting the favorite, Birka, in a drive. Stella Graine, after delaying the start through her greenness, got away in the lead, but was through when they reached the stretch.

The biggest dasappointment of the day came with the defeat of Oreen by the long shot, St. Avano, and the second choice, Katrine, in the closing race, oren acted sourly at the post and did not make up her mind to run until they were in the stretch.

E. R. Bradley has decided not to race Boots and Saddle again this season and will rest him at his fille Hour Farm until next spring. This good coit went amiss at Windsor and did not fully recover while at Saratoga. It is thought that the long let up will bring him back to his best form and that he should be a factor in the three-year-old division next ranked as one of the stars on the far western courses.

Warring was taken out of the fifth race by order of the judges on account of supposed fractionsness. He will be barred from starting here until the officials are convinced that he is tractable.

Solar Star was excused from starting on account of ineligibility.

Palo Alto, which was carded to start in the first race, was withdrawn on account of an injury he sustained at Churchill Downs while being worked in anticipation of his start here today.

Star Jassmine, in T. C. McDowell's stable, is reported to be in a bad way with fever.

Jockey J. Kederis has practically closed a contract to ride for Robert Davies next season. Mr. Davies is a wealthy Canadian sportsman who races his horses chiefly over the Dominion courses.

The improving track enabled trainers to give their horses necessary work Sunday and this morning.

LOOK TO CANADA FOR ARMY REMOUNTS.

London, Eug., September 15.—John F. Ryan of Montreal, manager of the Canadian National Breeding Bureau, now here, has offered the British war office second choice of half-bred horses foaled in Canada, Under the new scheme the Canadian government will have first choice. The proposal is to make Canada a supplementary source of supply for British army horses. Now comes the opportunity.

for British army horses. Now comes the oppor-tunity.

Lord Esher, who was chairman of the war office reconstruction committee, has issued a manifesto declaring the horse supply dangerously inadequate. Agents of foreign governments now here are making large contracts which further deplete the supplies. Seven brigades of Royal Field Artillery, now at Aldershot, are supposed to be ready for immed-late obligation, have horses enough for only one brigade. Substitution of motor traction for horse emnibusses and cabs robbed the army of fruitful sources of supply in case of emergency. Hence the expectation that the war office will welcome the help from Canadian breeders.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. S., St. Louis, Mo. Do not know of Plunkett's location. Write to Barney Schreit alia, Mo.

S. S. Milwaukee, Wis. Because she ran third the place bet on Princess Callaway necessarily lost There was place betting in plenty on her.

C. E. H., Steubenville. O. The difference was that one was a straight bet and the other a place bet. In place betting separate prices are laid when the bookmakers see fit to do so, but not in straight betting. The Crisco bet lost because Crisco did not win.

STAKE FOR DONALD MACDONALD.

Veteran Racer Is One of Two That Carry Holland Colors to Victory in East.

Colors to Victory in East.

Baltimore, Md., September 15.—Well-matched fields went to the post at Havre de Grace this afternoon and, as favorites wen four of the races, the large crowd that was present bad an enjoyable experience. The stable of J. L. Holland carried off the honors by winning a double with Donald Macdonald and Dartworth, the last-named scoring his first victory in the Holland colors. Donald Macdonald's victory came in the feature race, the Oakington Selling Stakes, and it was achieved by the matter of a few inches. Donald Macdonald forged to the front at the end of the first furlong and held a commanding lead to the stretch. Then Star Gaze moved up from the rear with a rush and in the drive to the finish gradually reduced the favorite's lead. Many were of the opinion that he got up in time to earn the verdict, but the official placing was in favor of Donald Macdonald.

Jockeys J. McTaggart and Beronde took the riding honors of the afternoon, the first-named piloting three winners and Deronde two, McTaggart's winners were Nello, Donald Macdonald and Flamma, while Deronde was the pilot of Brave Cunarder and Dartworth. McTaggart was guilty of some rough riding on Donald Macdonald and it helped bring about the defeat of Dr. Dunner. The selling race activities were continued today, there being two runups during the day. After Blue Thistie won the second race for which he was to be entered to be sold for $400. Guy Gray, trainer of the second horse, made Mr. Hallenbeck pay $805 to retain him. Mr. Hallenbeck had a chance to square accounts with 1 and 1 and

Jockey Neylon was suspended for ten days fo striking jockey A. Wilson with his whip during the running of the race on Saturday in which Neylor rode Grasmere.

DORVAL TRACK AUSPICIOUSLY OPENED.

Inaugural Meeting at New Course Near Montreal Begins Under Favorable Conditions

Begins Under Favorable Conditions.

Montreal, Que., September 15.—The Inaugural meeting of the Dorval Jockey Club began today under highly favorable conditions. The track was hig good shape, although a bit cuppy and slow, but as the meeting progresses it will become firmer and the footing better. Next spring it should be one of the fastest courses in Canada. The finishing line is almost at the first turn and this gives a straight run through the homestretch of almost a straight run through the French element and the log live the meeting a proper sendoff. The club is drawing strongly from the French element and the sport this afternoon, The program was made up of a series of several races and a majority of them furnished keen contests and close finishes.

The proceedings started off with a disqualification, Fathom, which beat Czar Michael a scant length, being set back for fouling the latter. Lounsberry had the mount on Fathom. On the turn out of the backstretch Lounsberry rushed Fathom to the front and, cutting across to the inside, piled the leaders against the fence. In the mixup Czar Michael went to his knees and was knocked back. When he recovered, he went after the leader and, closing a big gap, was wearing him down at the end. The stewards promptly allowed Scharff's claim of foul and the change in the placing gave Czar Michael first, The Spirit second and Montreal third. Lounsberry was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding.

Four favorites won, the successful choices being Czar Michael, Cliff Stream, Sir Blaise and Tactics. Several stables arrived from Toronto this morning, the consignment requiring four cars.

Many of the officials are those who served at Blue Bonnets. The exceptions are Joseph A. Murphy and T. J. Clay, stewards, Sheridan Clark, racing secretary, Herman Conkling, elerk of the scales, and Dr. O. J. Farley, paddeck hidge.

Capt. E. B. Cassatt has given second call on the services of jockey T. Davies to J. L. Holland for the Havre de Grace, Laurel and Pimlico meetings. W. T. Anderson has purchased from John S. Bar-bee the yearling bay colt by Peep o'Day—Sweet Marjorie and the yearling chestnut filly by Peep o'Day—My Gem.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, traced the New York State Fair racing at Syracuse with his presence, in addition to sending several of its horses there to race.

Dr. J. T. Shannon was acting for Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield at the Keene sale when he purchased the wealling bay colt by Peter Pan out of Mint-cake, and the chestnut wealling colt by Delhi— Anthem. John Miller has returned to Lexington with sixty-three horses sold at the recent New York sales, thirty-three purchased by Price McKinney being among the number. The latter were sent to Kingston Farm. He also brought from New York the chestnut horse Textile, five, by Inflexible—Gold

CATERS TO LONG DISTANCE RACING.

Lonisville, Ky., September 15.—In compiling the conditions of the overnight handicaps and purses for the first week's racing at Douglas Park this fall, Secretary E. W. Maginn has arranged several rices each day at one mile several races cach day at one mile several races cach day at one mile several property of the p Inaugural, though he has Flabbergast also engaged in the race and may decide, however, to start them both.

J. T. Weaver's string, headed by Gowell, will be shipped from Lexington to Churchill Downs early this week. Gowell was never in better racing form, according to trainer Weaver. She has been racing at Lexington in short scrambles merely to fit her for her big local engagements, none of which she will dodge this fall. Weaver says she is a sure starter in the two big races at Douglas Park and he will also send her to the post in the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance Stakes, four miles, which event he expects to win with the daughter of Ort Wells. He thinks her races in the two stakes at Douglas Park—the Inaugural, one mile and a sixteenth, and the Louisville Cup, two miles—will just fit her for the big four-mile race at the Downs. Gowell is as sound as she was the day she was fooled.

J. B. Respess reports that he has a likely fot of yearlings this season, from which he hopes to develop some high-class two-year-olds to race in his colors in 1914. He has seven colts and seven fillies. All but three of them are by Dick Welles, the other three being by Marathon. Respess naturally is much pleased with this season's showing of Dick Welles, which is among the top-nothers so far as winning two-year-olds are concerned and also stands seventh in the general list of stallions for the year. Respess also has a promising band of weanlings this season, most of which are by this noted horse. His yearlings are now at his farm in Kenton County, where they have been quartered since early last summer. He will transfer them to the Latonia track when he goes there with his racing stable at the conclusion of the local racing season.

Tex Foreman has in charge two yearlings at Churchill Downs which were purchased by Ed. Knebelkamp from a woman breeder of thoroughbreds at Eminence, Ky. One is a chestnut colt and the other a chestnut filly, by High Order, out of well-bred dams.

George J. Long was at Churchill Downs yesterday to see his yearlings and other horses that trainer W. S. Hopkins has in charge there. He also went over to Douglas Park, where trainer Pete Coyne has his main racing stable quartered, including his great horse, Free Lance, and his speedy filly. Semprite. A business trip kept Mr. Long from attending the proposed meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission at Lexington last week. The owner of Rashford Manor Farm is endeavoring to so shape his business affairs that he will be able to enjoy the twenty-one days' of local racing at Douglas Park and Churchill Downs.

A remarkably improved horse which has come to the Downs this fall after being driven for some time in a buggy is Pilain and there are indications that he will return to the good form that marked his racing when he was a member of Pat Dunne's racing stable. Pilain is now six years old and his cowner, a local turfman, purchased him with the intention of using him as a sire. He is a richly-bred horse, being a son of Bannockburn and out of the well-bred mare. Del Hart, which has produced other winners in Odelia, Del Friar and Don Hart. To all appearances Pilain's work as a buggy horse has made him sound in wind and limb.

John Lowe has abandoned his plans for shipping several horses to Lexington.

BREEDERS ENCOURAGED BY SALES.

Anyone who does not find in the results of the sales of thoroughbred horses recently held cause for a feeling of great satisfaction must indeed be hard to please. Not for a long time in the United States have so many valuable horses been placed on the market, and the way the prices held up showed perhaps better than anything else could have done the present stability of the thoroughbred market and the confidence that these buyers feel in the future of racing. The splendid total received for the Keene horses was gratifying to every thoroughbred breeder, and the Kohler sale, which followed it so closely, was no less successful, while the sale of the Oxnard yearlings, which preceded the Keene dispersal sale but a few days, demonstrated that there is a strong demand for well-bred, good looking yearlings.

In the dispersal of the Kohler horses five stallions realized a total of $55,900, an average of $11,180, the twenty-six mares, some of them with weaulings at side, sold for $24,400, an average of $938, and the seven yearlings went for $7,200, an average of $1,028, prices for which no one has to make any apology.

We are glad Mrs. Kohler decided to bring Uncle seven yearlings went for $7,200, an average of apology.

We are glad Mrs, Kohler decided to bring Uncle back to this country to be sold, and we are especially glad that this great young horse was bought by a Kentuckian and that his future home will be in this state, which has lost all too many good horses in recent years.

We regret that Novelty and Fitz Herebrt were not returned, but there is consolation in the fact that the young Ethelbert horse was purchased by Mr, Clarence H. Mackay and he will doubtless eventually find his way home.

It is of course a matter of congratulation to every lover of the thoroughbred that so many of the Keene horses should have come back to Kentucky, and when we see Col. Young buying Master Robert and once more becoming actively interested in breeding thoroughbreds it seems quite a bit like old times. The outlook is bright at present for the thoroughbred interests, but we can stand a lot of brightness after the last four years.—Thoroughbred Record.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Banorella, b. m. 6, by Bannockburn—Sorella, from the stable of J. M. Goode, has been sent to Kingston Farm for retirement to the stud.

Gillcoy, by Frank Gill—Coy Maid, and Creme de Menthe, by Wild Mint—Aviston, have been sent by H. H. Hewitt to Batavia, N. Y., to be mated with coach and hackney mares.

The half sister to the American steeplechaser Highbridge, sold in Australia last January to J. Laurence Brown, is to be sent to the stud this season without being tried on the turf.

Sweep, brown horse, 1907, by Ben Brush out of Pink Domino, which was purchased out of the Keene sale by a Kentucky syndicate composed of Chas. W. Moore, John S. Barbee, Kinzea Stone and Dr. J. C. Carrick, will make the season of 1914 at Mr. Barbee's Glen Helen Stud.

The latest sample of starting apparatus in Australia.

at Mr. Barbee's Gien Helen Stud.

The latest sample of starting apparatus in Australia is one invented by C. Vesperman, of Hughen-den, Queensland, the working of which was recently given a trial by the officiars of the Maryborough Joekey Club, who were particularly pleased with its action. It consists of a single tape on helical springs running on metal bars encased with leather from wooden posts about 4 fret, six inches in height, the right one of these being fitted with a lever to which the tape is attached. On this being released the springs contract and the tape is drawn up.

Winner—Br. e, by Cunard—Grail (trained by H. G. Bedwell).

Went to post at 4:24. At post 7 minutes. Start poor and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. BRAVE CUNARDER ran in closest pursuit of the leader from the start and, in a fast finish, easily disposed of his opposition in the last eighth. OLD BEN was away badly, but was sent after the others and, closing a big gap, outgained SUSAN B, in the final strides. The latter was off forwardly and showed much speed for the first five-eighths, then unexpectedly tired. RAY O'LIGHT also tired. HARVEST QUEEN was badly messed about and HIGH PRIEST was practically left at the post. The winner, entered for $1,000, was bid up to $1,505 and bought in.

Time, 24, 48%, 1:14%, 1:42, 1:46%. Track fast.

Winner—Ch. g, by Stalwart—Domino Noire (trained by H. Marshall).

Went to post at 4:49. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won cantering; second and third driving. DARTWORTH outran his opponents from the start and was only cantering at the finish. RENO always close up, bored out slightly in the homestretch, but held NOBLE GRAND safe for second place. The latter ran on the inside throughout and was tiring and driving hard at the end to withstand BRUIN BELLE'S challenge. The latter ran forwardly throughout. ABBOTSFORD ran poorly.
